

Chapter 13 Printing, Publications & Media

Requirements for printing, publishing and media vary based on the federal, or state funding source used to support the expenses. Prior approval from the Crime Victim Assistance Division should be sought whenever there is question about the allowability of what's being created and for guidance on appropriate language required to be printed on the publication.

