

Cost Allocation Plans --Central Support Services

State agencies and local units of government may not charge the cost of central support services supplied by the state or local units of government to a grant, except pursuant to a cost allocation plan approved by the cognizant federal agency. The rate which is to be applied may be on a fixed, predetermined, or fixed-with-carry-forward provision.

