Re: First Iowa Insurance Agency, Inc. – Incident Notification

Dear Sir or Madam:

McDonald Hopkins PLC represents First Iowa Insurance Agency, Inc. (“First Iowa”). I write to provide notification regarding an incident that may involve the personal information of approximately five-hundred and thirty-three (533) Iowa residents. First Iowa’s investigation is ongoing and this notification will be supplemented with any new significant facts or findings subsequent to this submission, if any. By providing this notice, First Iowa does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Iowa law or personal jurisdiction.

First Iowa learned that an unauthorized individual may have obtained access to a First Iowa employee’s email account between October 4, 2018 and October 8, 2018. Upon learning of the issue, First Iowa commenced a prompt and thorough investigation. As part of its investigation, First Iowa has worked very closely with external cybersecurity professionals. After an extensive forensic investigation and manual email review, First Iowa discovered on January 8, 2019 that the impacted email account that was accessed contained certain personal information of Iowa residents. The information that was contained in the account included the residents’ full names and may have included one or more of the following: Social Security numbers, driver’s license numbers, bank account information, credit or debit account information, and/or passport information. Not all individuals had their Social Security numbers impacted by this incident.

To date, First Iowa has no evidence that any of the information has been misused. Nevertheless, out of an abundance of caution, First Iowa wants to make you (and the affected residents) aware of the incident and explain the steps it is taking to help safeguard the affected residents against identity fraud. First Iowa is providing written notification via U.S. Mail commencing on or about January 23, 2019 to individuals impacted by this incident, in substantially the same form as the letter attached hereto. First Iowa is offering free credit monitoring services for one (1) year to individuals whose Social Security number were contained in the compromised email account. First Iowa is advising the affected residents to remain vigilant in reviewing financial account statements for fraudulent or irregular activity. First Iowa is providing the affected residents a telephone number to call with any questions regarding the incident. First Iowa is advising the affected residents about the process for placing a fraud alert and/or security freeze on their credit files, and obtaining free credit reports. Individuals whose bank, credit, or debit account information was impacted are being advised to contact their financial institution to inquire about steps to take to protect their accounts, including whether they should close their accounts or obtain new account numbers. The affected residents are also being provided with the contact information for the consumer reporting agencies, the Federal Trade Commission, and the Office of the Attorney General of Iowa.

First Iowa is committed to maintaining the privacy of personal information in its possession and has taken many precautions to safeguard it. First Iowa has made changes to its policies and will continue to evaluate and modify its practices and internal controls to enhance the security and privacy of personal information.

Should you have any questions regarding this notification, please contact me at (248) 220-1356 or dpaluzzi@mcdonaldhopkins.com.

Sincerely,

Dominic A. Paluzzi

IMPORTANT INFORMATION PLEASE REVIEW CAREFULLY

January 16, 2019

Dear [REDACTED]:

I am writing with important information regarding a recent security incident. The privacy and security of the personal information we maintain is of the utmost importance to First Iowa Insurance Agency, Inc. ("First Iowa"). As such, we wanted to provide you with information about the incident, explain the services we are making available to you, and let you know that we continue to take significant measures to protect your information.

What Happened?

We learned that an unauthorized individual may have obtained access to a First Iowa employee's email account between October 4, 2018 and October 8, 2018.

What We Are Doing.

Upon learning of the issue, we commenced a prompt and thorough investigation. As part of our investigation, we have worked very closely with external cybersecurity professionals. After an extensive forensic investigation and manual email review, we discovered on December 17, 2018 that the impacted email account that was accessed contained some of your personal information. We have no evidence that any of the information has been misused. Nevertheless, out of an abundance of caution, we want to make you aware of the incident.

What Information Was Involved?

The impacted email account that was accessed contained some of your personal information, including your full name, Social Security number, driver's license number, and credit or debit account information.

What You Can Do.

To protect you from potential misuse of your information, we are offering a complimentary one-year membership of Experian IdentityWorksSM Credit 3B. This product helps detect possible misuse of your personal information and provides you with identity protection services focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. IdentityWorks Credit 3B is completely free to you and enrolling in this program will not hurt your credit score. For more information on identity theft prevention and IdentityWorks Credit 3B, including instructions on how to activate your complimentary one-year membership, please see the additional information provided in this letter.

This letter also provides other precautionary measures you can take to protect your personal information, including placing a Fraud Alert and/or Security Freeze on your credit files, and/or obtaining a free credit report.

Because your credit or debit account information was impacted, we recommend that you contact your financial institution to inquire about steps to take to protect your account, including whether you should close your account or obtain a new account number. Additionally, you should always remain vigilant in reviewing your financial account statements and credit reports for fraudulent or irregular activity on a regular basis.

For More Information.

Please accept our apologies that this incident occurred. We are committed to maintaining the privacy of personal information in our possession and have taken many precautions to safeguard it. We have made extensive changes to our policies and we will continue to evaluate and modify our practices and internal controls to enhance the security and privacy of your personal information.

If you have any further questions regarding this incident, please contact me at [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Ronald W. Hammerberg

Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

2. Placing a Fraud Alert on Your Credit File.

Whether or not you choose to use the complimentary 12 month credit monitoring services, we recommend that you place an initial 90-day "Fraud Alert" on your credit files, at no charge. A fraud alert tells creditors to contact you personally before they open any new accounts. To place a fraud alert, call any one of the three major credit bureaus at the numbers listed below. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, they will notify the others.

Equifax

P.O. Box 105069
Atlanta, GA 30348
www.equifax.com
1-800-525-6285

Experian

P.O. Box 2002
Allen, TX 75013
www.experian.com
1-888-397-3742

TransUnion LLC

P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19016
www.transunion.com
1-800-680-7289

3. Consider Placing a Security Freeze on Your Credit File.

If you are very concerned about becoming a victim of fraud or identity theft, you may request a "Security Freeze" be placed on your credit file, at no charge. A security freeze prohibits, with certain specific exceptions, the consumer reporting agencies from releasing your credit report or any information from it without your express authorization. You may place a security freeze on your credit report by contacting all three nationwide credit reporting companies at the numbers below and following the stated directions or by sending a request in writing, by mail, to all three credit reporting companies:

Equifax Security Freeze

PO Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348
<https://www.freeze.equifax.com>
1-800-349-9960

Experian Security Freeze

PO Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
<http://experian.com/freeze>
1-888-397-3742

TransUnion Security Freeze

P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19016
<http://www.transunion.com/securityfreeze>
1-888-909-8872

In order to place the security freeze, you'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information. After receiving your freeze request, each credit reporting company will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

If your personal information has been used to file a false tax return, to open an account or to attempt to open an account in your name or to commit fraud or other crimes against you, you may file a police report in the City in which you currently reside.

If you do place a security freeze prior to enrolling in the credit monitoring service as described above, you will need to remove the freeze in order to sign up for the credit monitoring. After you sign up for the credit monitoring service, you may refreeze your credit file.

4. Obtaining a Free Credit Report.

Under federal law, you are entitled to one free credit report every 12 months from each of the above three major nationwide credit reporting companies. Call 1-877-322-8228 or request your free credit reports online at www.annualcreditreport.com. Once you receive your credit reports, review them for discrepancies. Identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. Verify all information is correct. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting company.

5. Additional Helpful Resources.

Even if you do not find any suspicious activity on your initial credit reports, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recommends that you check your credit reports periodically. Checking your credit report periodically can help you spot problems and address them quickly.

If you find suspicious activity on your credit reports or have reason to believe your information is being misused, call your local law enforcement agency and file a police report. Be sure to obtain a copy of the police report, as many creditors will want the information it contains to absolve you of the fraudulent debts. You may also file a complaint with the FTC by contacting them on the web at www.ftc.gov/idtheft, by phone at 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338), or by mail at Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. Your complaint will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, where it will be accessible to law enforcement for their investigations. In addition, you may obtain information from the FTC about fraud alerts and security freezes.

Iowa Residents: You may contact law enforcement or the Iowa Attorney General's Office to report suspected incidents of identity Theft: Office of the Attorney General of Iowa, Consumer Protection Division, Hoover State Office Building, 1305 East Walnut Street, Des Moines, IA 50319, www.iowaattorneygeneral.gov, Telephone: (515) 281-5164
