Notice via Email: databreach@ag.iowa.gov

To Whom it May Concern,

We serve as counsel for the Green Accounting & Tax LLC located at 100 E Taylor St, Ste 1, Creston, IA 50801, and write to provide notification of a recent data security incident. By providing this notice, Green Accounting does not waive any rights or defenses under Iowa law, including the data breach notification statute.

On April 27, 2026, Green Accounting discovered unusual activity on its network and immediately took steps to secure Green Accounting's systems and began an investigation. Additionally, Green Accounting swiftly engaged a third-party team of forensic investigators to determine the full nature and scope of the incident and assist in responding in an appropriate manner. The investigation ultimately determined that certain information within Green Accounting environment may have been accessed or acquired by an unauthorized actor. Upon discovery, Green Accounting worked to identify and collect the potentially affected data to perform a comprehensive review in order to determine the types of information impacted and the individuals to whom the data relates. On July 13, 2026, this process was completed and Green Accounting worked to identify sufficient contact information to notify individuals whose information may have been impacted.

This process included performing a National Change of Address (NCOA) search to ensure as up-to-date information as possible. On August 11, 2026, Green Accounting received its results from the NCOA search and learned that this incident potentially affected 3,335 Iowa residents. The information potentially impacted included first and last name, Social Security number, driver's license number, and financial account information.

In response to this incident, Green Accounting took steps to respond to the incident and further secure their environment, conducted an investigation, and notified law enforcement. Additionally, Green Accounting began providing notice to the potentially impacted individuals on August 12, 2026, via U.S. mail. A copy of the notification letter is attached as Exhibit A. In an abundance of caution, Green Accounting is offering the potentially impacted individuals complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services.

Very truly yours,

CIPRIANI & WERNER, P.C.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. Once you receive your credit report, review it for discrepancies and identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting bureau.

You have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a credit freeze on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without your express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Address for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (e.g., state driver's license or identification card); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft, if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
