STATE OF IOWA ex rel.
THOMAS J. MILLER,
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF IOWA
99AG25112,

Plaintiff,

v.

ADVANCED EMPLOYMENT
SOLUTIONS, LLC,
an Arizona corporation;

ANN MARIE SCOTT,
in her individual capacity and her corporate capacity as Manager and Owner of the corporate defendant; and

MILA SPRAGUE,
in her individual capacity and her corporate capacity as General Manager of the corporate defendant;

Defendants.

Equity No. CE _____

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

The Court, having been presented with the Plaintiff's Petition and the application for a temporary injunction contained therein on an ex parte basis by Assistant Attorney General Steve St. Clair, and having considered that application, including counsel's certified reasons supporting Plaintiff's claim that a temporary injunction should issue without requiring advance notice (see Iowa

R. Civ. P. 1.1507), determines that the application should be granted. In doing so, the Court calls the attention of Defendants to Iowa R. Civ. P. 1.1509, which provides that Defendants may move this Court at any time for an order dissolving, vacating or modifying this injunction, in which case a hearing is to be held within ten days of when the motion is filed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED pursuant to Iowa R. Civ. P. 1.1501 et seq. and the Iowa Consumer Fraud Act, Iowa Code ' 714.16, that Defendants, and each of them, and (as applicable) their directors, officers, principals, partners, employees, agents, servants, representatives, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, assigns, merged or acquired predecessors, parent or controlling entities, and all other persons, corporations and other entities acting in concert or participating with the Defendants who have actual or constructive notice of the Court=s injunction are restrained and enjoined, until further order of this Court, from engaging in any course of advertising, solicitation, or sale directed to Iowa consumers (or directed to non-Iowans from an Iowa location) (1) that violates the Iowa Consumer Fraud Act; (2) that involves re-solicitation of sales within a shorter time frame or more frequently than the consumer had been affirmatively led to expect by a representative of Advanced Employment Solutions, LLC ("AES"); and/or, without limiting the foregoing, (2) that misleads one or more consumers regarding:

- a) the existence or extent of the handicap, disability, or disadvantage of, or the existence or extent of any hardship endured by, any person soliciting sales or donations by telephone;
- b) the status of an AES representative as a military veteran;
- c) the extent or nature of any previous contacts between an AES representative and a consumer, or a member of a consumer's family;
- d) the use to which proceeds of sales have been, would be, or will be put, and/or the extent to which one or more AES representatives benefit financially or otherwise from sales;
- e) the frequency with which AES customers are re-solicited;

f) the price of any AES products, including without limitation which products are the least expensive and how much they cost;

g) whether AES performs periodic drives, as opposed to engaging in telephone solicitations year around.

Counsel for Plaintiff is directed to provide actual notice of this injunction to Defendants, and to obtain service of this injunction upon Defendants, as soon as circumstances permit.
