

Agricultural Summer Internship Opportunity at the Iowa Attorney General's Office

The Office of the Iowa Attorney General is offering an exciting internship opportunity for 1-2 law students during the summer. Under the guidance of an Assistant Attorney General, the selected interns will contribute to major projects focusing on agricultural law and related issues.

Key Responsibilities:

Research and prepare legal pleadings around agricultural law and related issues.
Independently and as part of a team, review, research, and analyze information to make recommendations regarding complex litigation matters.
Work closely with the Assistant Attorney General to support ongoing cases and projects.

Qualifications:

Currently enrolled in law school with a strong academic record.
Exceptional research and writing skills.
Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a team environment.
Demonstrated interest in agricultural law and litigation.

Commitment:

This is an unpaid internship.
Interns are expected to work 20-30 hours per week.

Application Process: Interested candidates should apply by sending a cover letter, writing sample, and resume to:

Aaron McKay, Chief of Staff
AGHumanResources@ag.iowa.gov

Or

1305 E. Walnut St., 2nd Floor,
Des Moines, IA 50319

Applications will be accepted for as long as this posting is available on the Iowa Attorney General's website. Please ensure your application clearly demonstrates your qualifications and interest in the role. This internship presents a unique opportunity for law students to gain hands-on experience and insights into the workings of the Iowa Attorney General's Office, particularly in areas related to administrative law and complex litigation. We encourage students with a passion for public service and law to apply.
