

CULTURALLY SPECIFIC PROGRAMS

GUIDE
FOR ADVOCATES

Amani Community Services

Amani works with African American survivors of sexual assault & domestic violence in Linn and Blackhawk Counties.

Crisis Line: 888-983-2533

Latinos Unidos por una Nueva Amanecer (LUNA)

LUNA works with Latina/o survivors of sexual assault & domestic violence. They provide crisis intervention in Polk, Warren, and Marshall Counties and other counties as staff capacity allows.

Crisis Line: 866-256-7668

Monsoon United Asian Women of Iowa

Monsoon works with Asian & Pacific Islander survivors of sexual assault & domestic violence statewide in Iowa.

Crisis Line: 866-881-4641

Transformative Healing

Transformative Healing works with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, asexual (LGBTQIA), and other marginalized sexual and gender identity survivors of sexual assault in Polk, Johnson, Story, and Linn Counties.

Crisis Line: 515-850-8081

Deaf Iowans Against Abuse (DIAA)

DIAA provides advocacy services to deaf, hard of hearing, and deaf-blind survivors of all crimes state wide. DIAA collaborates with all mainstream schools with deaf programs and Iowa School for the Deaf.

Text: 515-661-4015

VP/P Line: 319-531-7719

Email: Help@diaaiowa.org

Meskwaki Victim Services

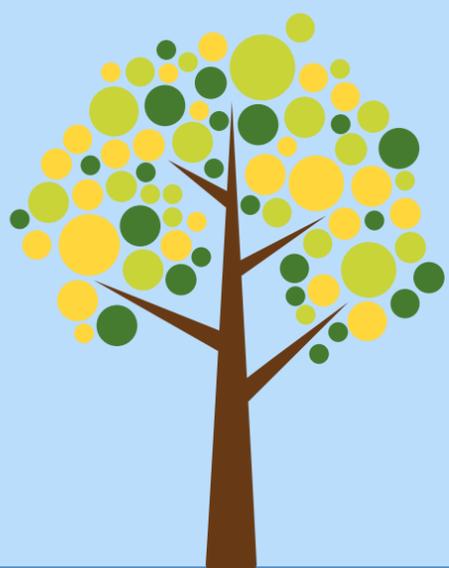

Meskwaki works with Native survivors of sexual assault & domestic violence, and their families, living on the settlement and throughout Iowa.

Call or Text: 641-481-0334

Nisaa African Family Services

Nisaa works with African immigrant and refugee survivors of sexual assault & domestic violence statewide in Iowa.

Crisis Line: 515-255-5430

FUN FACTS ABOUT CSPS

Culturally specific programs can provide statewide co-advocacy to enhance options for survivors.

CSPs are available to provide statewide technical assistance to member programs that want more training on working with their specific populations.

