Dear Attorney General Miller:

We represent Ambassador Title Service and DRI Title & Escrow (collectively the “Companies”) with respect to a recent security incident involving the potential exposure of certain personally identifiable information described in more detail below.

1. Nature of security incident.

On December 25, 2016, the Companies became aware that a data security incident may have potentially exposed personally identifiable information in its systems. The Companies immediately began investigating the incident, and engaged independent forensic investigators to assist. On January 14, 2017, the Companies determined that documents related to a small percentage of its home purchasing or refinancing customers may have been impacted. These documents may have contained personal information about the impacted customers, including their name and Social Security number, financial account information, and other transaction-related information.

2. Number of Iowa residents affected.

Five hundred and forty-seven (547) Iowa residents were affected by the incident. A notification letter was sent to the affected individuals on February 28, 2017 via regular mail. Enclosed please find a copy of the notification letter.

3. Steps you have taken or plan to take relating to the incident.

The Companies have taken steps to enhance the security of the information in its systems by adding additional monitoring capabilities, deleting unnecessary information, and further securing access controls. The Companies notified law enforcement authorities and is cooperating with their investigation. The Companies are offering potentially impacted individuals credit monitoring and identity restoration services through AllClear ID, free of charge for one year. Notice was also provided to the credit reporting agencies.

4. Contact information.

The Companies remain dedicated to protecting the sensitive information in its systems. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at MVentrone@ThompsonCoburn.com or (312) 580-2219.

Very truly yours,

Thompson Coburn LLP

Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear John Sample:

We are writing to inform you of a data security incident experienced by DRI Title & Escrow (“DRI”) that may have resulted in the exposure of your name and Social Security number. This information may have been provided to us in connection with your home purchase or refinancing of your home loan. We value and respect the privacy of your information, and sincerely apologize for any concern or inconvenience this may cause you. This letter contains information about steps you can take to protect your information, and resources we are making available to help you.

1. What happened and what information was involved:

On December 25, 2016, we learned that a possible data security incident may have impacted documents stored on our system. We immediately engaged outside forensic computer experts to assist us with our investigation. Unfortunately, on January 14, 2017, we learned that documents related to your home purchase or refinancing may have been impacted. These documents may have contained personal information about you, including your name, Social Security number, financial account information, and other transaction-related information. As part of our investigation, we notified law enforcement and are cooperating with their investigation. We have not received any reports of fraud as a result of this incident.

2. What we are doing and what you can do:

Because the security and privacy of your information is important to us, we have arranged to have AllClear ID protect your identity for 12 months at no cost to you. The following identity protection services start on the date of this notice and you can use them at any time during the next 12 months.

AllClear Identity Repair: This service is automatically available to you with no enrollment required. If a problem arises, simply call 1-855-725-4571 and a dedicated investigator will help recover financial losses, restore your credit and make sure your identity is returned to its proper condition.

AllClear Credit Monitoring: This service offers additional layers of protection including credit monitoring and a $1 million identity theft insurance policy. To use this service, you will need to provide your personal information to AllClear ID. You may sign up online at enroll.allclearid.com or by phone by calling 1-855-725-4571 using the following redemption code: Redemption Code.

Please note: Additional steps may be required by you in order to activate your phone alerts and monitoring options.

01-02-3-00

In addition, we are further strengthening the security of information on our systems. This includes increasing our network monitoring capabilities to help ensure sensitive information in our control is properly protected. We are also working with our computer security partners to enhance our system security, and help prevent future incidents. For your convenience, we've attached a summary of the relevant state notification requirements, and steps you can take to protect your credit and help prevent identity theft.

3. For more information:

If you have any questions or concerns, please call 1-855-725-4571, Monday through Saturday, 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Central Time. Your trust is a top priority for DRI, and we deeply regret any inconvenience or concern that this matter may cause you.

Sincerely,

For residents of Massachusetts:

It is required by state law that you are informed of your right to obtain a police report if you are a victim of identity theft.

For residents of all states:

Fraud Alerts: You can place fraud alerts with the three credit bureaus at one of the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three credit bureaus is below.

Monitoring: You should always remain vigilant and monitor your accounts for suspicious or unusual activity.

Security Freeze: You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to send a request to each consumer reporting agency by certified mail, overnight mail, or regular stamped mail. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. The consumer reporting agency may charge a fee of up to $5.00 to place a freeze or lift or remove a freeze, but is free if you are a victim of identity theft or the spouse of a victim of identity theft, and you have submitted a valid police report relating to the identity theft incident to the consumer reporting agency. You may obtain a security freeze by contacting any one or more of the following national consumer reporting agencies:

Equifax Security Freeze
P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348
www.equifax.com

Experian Security Freeze
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
